SUMMER LUAU JUNE 4–JUNE 25
UNDER THE SEA JULY 9–JULY 30
TEACHER: HANNAH BUSH

Our birth-seven class is the perfect class for siblings! Parents can bring all their children to the same class and have fun interacting with their children through music. The class will provide a variety of music and activities to keep all children engaged and energized throughout the session. There will be opportunities for older siblings to practice being a peer support for their younger siblings by helping them play instruments and demonstrating activities. There will be opportunities for all children to be free and explore their environment through music. The summer themes for the sessions will engage children socially and cognitively while they have a blast with family and friends!

This toddler class is perfect for young children who are moving and grooving around the house! This class focuses on developmentally appropriate skills for children ages one and a half to three and a half. We will explore our voices, encouraging children to sing and increase their communication with parents and peers. From silly sounds to phrases, the songs will be perfect to engage your child socially! We will also play instruments and provide movement activities to focus on developmentally appropriate fine and gross motor skills. Your child will get to explore fun instruments while improving these skills, all while engaging with you and their peers! This class has a lot to offer and you don't want your toddler to miss out!

Want to engage your child with their peers this summer while they are out of school? This class is perfect for social interaction with peers. In this class your child will be active and engaged in music and movement activities that will promote language, emotional, and musical skills. Your child will learn some basic music theory skills and learn the aspects of music through movement and fun summer activities. When parents join the fun for the final activities of the class, you will learn some activities you and your family can do at home, on vacation, or in the car. Come check out what all the fun is about and give your child some wonderful memories this summer!
